

10 OSU Freshmen Make Road Trip to East Lansing

10 players in Ohio State's 22-man recruiting class made the road trip to East Lansing, for the team's Big Ten opener against Michigan State.

The 10 freshmen that made the trip to East Lansing were a part of the 74-man traveling roster and that list includes wide receivers Jeremiah Smith, Mylan Graham, cornerback Aaron Scott Jr., quarterback Julian Sayin, safety Jaylen McClain, punter Nick McLarty, running backs James Peoples and Sam Williams-Dixon, linebacker Payton Pierce and defensive end Eddrick Houston.

Among the freshmen not to travel with the team were quarterback Air Noland, cornerbacks Bryce West and Miles Lockhart, linebacker Garrett Stover, safety Leroy Roker III, offensive linemen Gabe Van Sickle, Deontae Armstrong, Devontae Armstrong, Ian Moore, wide receiver Damarion Witten, tight end Maxence LeBlanc, and defensive lineman Eric Mensah.
