

13 OSU Players Receive Degrees/Certificates At Commencement Ceremonies

Several Buckeyes accomplished milestones off the field on Sunday during commencement ceremonies at the Schottenstein Center.

13 Ohio State football players received degrees or certificates during the ceremonies.

The 13 players and their respective majors or certificates included junior cornerback Denzel Burke (sport industry), senior offensive tackle Josh Fryar (human development and family science), senior running back TreVeyon Henderson (sport industry), graduate quarterback Will Howard (master's in sport industry), senior kicker Casey Magyar (mathematics), senior offensive tackle Zen Michalski (sport industry), senior tight end Jace Middleton (human development and family science), graduate quarterback Chad Ray (DEI certificate) graduate senior Lathan Ransom (DEI certificate), senior defensive end Jack Sawyer (sport industry), senior defensive tackle Tyleik Williams (sport industry) and senior center Toby Wilson.