

2020 New Jersey 4-Star OLB Cody Simon Commits To Ohio State

Jersey City (N.J.) St. Peter's Prep 2020 four-star outside linebacker Cody Simon (6-1, 218) commits to Ohio State, just nine days after his official visit to Columbus.

After much deliberation with my family and coaches, I have made the decision to attend THE Ohio State University!! I am grateful to now be able to focus on my team and our success for the 2019 season. pic.twitter.com/e2CTj4U0VW

A Jersey City, New Jersey, native, Simon chose the Buckeyes over offers from Penn State, Nebraska, Stanford, Notre Dame and more.

Simon picked up an offer from Ohio State May 7, made his official visit June 20 and committed to the Scarlet and Gray June 29, becoming the Buckeyes first linebacker commit in the 2020 class.

Simon is the No. 154 overall recruit and No. 10 outside linebacker in the 2020 class, as well as the No. 4 recruit in New Jersey.

An incredible athlete, Simon, displayed his athleticism at The Opening April 7. He ran the 40-yard dash in 4.62 seconds and completed the 20-yard shuttle in 4.28 seconds, showcasing excellent speed at his size. Simon also leaped 38.9 inches in the vertical jump, indicating his bounce is comparable to high flyers in the NBA.

As a junior at St. Peter Prep, Simon recorded 89 tackles, 13 1/2 tackles for loss, 4 1/2 sacks, one forced fumble, two fumbles recoveries, four pass break ups and one interception, which he returned for a touchdown, per 247Sports.
