

Early Signing Period: Five-Star Wide Receiver Mylan Graham Signs With Ohio State

Get to know New Haven, Ind., five-star wide receiver Mylan Graham, who signed with the Buckeyes on Wednesday.

Mylan Graham – A man of few words, the kid from New Haven, IN would rather let his routes do the talking. Notorious for getting open and finding the endzone and leaving defenders in his dust, Zone 6 is adding a much-welcomed member. Welcome to THE Brotherhood Mylan.... pic.twitter.com/jkQk1Yqo32

Height, Weight: 6-1, 170

247Sports Composite Ranking: He is rated as the No. 23 overall prospect, the seventh-ranked wide receiver and top-ranked recruit out of Indiana.

Commitment Date: Graham committed to Ohio State on April 4.

Other Offers: Alabama, Auburn, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Miami (Fla.), Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ole Miss, Penn State, Tennessee, Texas A&M, Wisconsin.

How He Did In High School: Graham played both outside and in the slot for New Haven, collecting 106 receptions for 1,992 yards and 21 touchdowns over the last three seasons, though he was limited for part of his senior campaign, appearing in just seven games.

Where He Fits For 2024: With Ohio State also signing Jeremiah Smith and Jeremiah McClellan at wide receiver, the class will likely feature Smith and Graham as outside receiver while McClellan will play in the slot. Smith is viewed as a potential day-one starter for Ohio State alongside Carnell Tate, but there's no reason that Graham can't one of the first receivers off the bench for the Buckeyes next season.
