The leading scorers for Carmen's Crew were Andre and Kaleb Wesson, who had 12 points each in the game, followed by Desonta Bradford and Jamel Morris - both of whom didn't play at Ohio State in college - with 11 points each.

In Jared Sullinger's return to the tournament, he scored nine points while Keyshawn Woods scored eight points and Kyle Young scored seven.

It was a 21-0 run at the beginning of the second quarter that helped Carmen's Crew get out to such a big lead that they were able to hold onto the rest of the game.

Their next game will be Monday against the Dayton Red Scare at 8 p.m. played at Dayton's UD Arena and it will be televised on FS2.
