

Ohio State Breaks Record With 164 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Recipients

Ohio State broke its own record for the most Big Ten Distinguished Scholar accolades in an academic year with 164 Buckeye student-athletes earning the honor.

The 164 honorees surpasses the record of 131 winners by Ohio State in 2018-19. For the fifth straight year, the Scarlet and Gray led the Big Ten in total recipients.

The full list is HERE and in the table below the story..

Big Ten faculty representatives created the Distinguished Scholar Award in 2008 to supplement the Academic All-Big Ten program. Distinguished Scholar Award recipients must have earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition in the previous academic year, must have been enrolled full time at the institution for the entire previous academic year (two semesters or three quarters) and earned a minimum GPA of 3.70 or better during the previous academic year, excluding any summer grades.

The Academic All-Big Ten threshold is a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher for a student-athlete's academic career. Overall, the Big Ten honored 1,517 student-athletes across the conference as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars for 2019-20.

The Buckeyes had 26 honorees who were recognized for posting 4.0 grade-point averages in 2019-20: Leon Cao (fencing), Gabriela Cecchini (fencing), Aleksandra Kolmykova (fencing), Luke Farrell (football), Ben Schmiesing (football), Adeena Shears (women's golf), Nevin Adamski (women's gymnastics), Claire Gagliardi (women's gymnastics), Tatum Skaggs (women's ice hockey), Emily Nothnagle (pistol), Megan Cymanski (rowing), Allison Krish (rowing), Grace Libben (rowing), Michaela Nordhaus (rowing), Mitch Bergman (men's soccer), Selina Vickery (women's soccer), Spencer Sansom (softball), Evan Stapp (men's swimming and diving), Kendyl Ferrara (women's swimming and diving), Quinn Fike (women's swimming and diving), Lara Tarvit (women's swimming and diving), Luke Landis (men's track and field), Alexa Jankowsky (women's track and field), Mia Grunze (women's volleyball), Lauren Witte (women's volleyball) and Kollin Moore (wrestling).

Despite difficulties that accompanied the COVID-19 pandemic, the Scarlet and Gray boasted a remarkable year in the classroom, with 231 student-athletes earning Ohio State degrees, 647 named Ohio State Scholar-Athletes and 447 receiving Academic All-Big Ten honors.
