

Ohio State-Michigan State Kickoff Time Moved To 7:30 P.M. On Peacock

Ohio State's matchup against Michigan State this weekend has been moved from a 7 p.m. start back to a 7:30 p.m. kickoff the conference announced on Tuesday.

The game will still be streamed live only on Peacock, making it the second Ohio State game available only on a streaming service after last season's win over Purdue was also streamed on Peacock.

The Spartans are off to a 3-1 start after losing to Boston College 23-19 on Sept. 21 after winning their first three games, one a Big Ten win over Maryland 27-24 on a late fourth quarter field goal.

The Buckeyes hold the advantage in 52 all-time meetings 37-15 with an eight-game win streak. The last time they lost was on Nov. 21, 2015, when J.T. Barrett completed 9 of 16 passes for just 46 passing yards and one touchdown for a final score of 17-14
