

Ohio State Releases 2020 Summer Football Camp Schedule

Last summer, Ohio State three-star tight end signee Joe Royer attended a one-day camp at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center and performed well enough to earn an offer from the Buckeyes and then committed just a few weeks later.

Royer's journey to Ohio State is certainly unique, as only a few players who attend these camps each cycle eventually play for the Buckeyes. But for others who come from all corners of the country, it marks an opportunity to meet and work with the coaching staff on the same field as the actual team practices.

That said, Ohio State recently released its camp schedule for this summer, with the dates as follows:

- June 3, 6 and 15: One-day camp (skill players in the morning and big men in the afternoon);
- June 6: Specialist camp;
- June 8-9: Youth camp;
- June 10-11: Ohio's overnight fundamental camp;
- June 18: 7-on-7 camp.

Stay tuned to Buckeye Sports Bulletin in the coming months for more information about these camps and the prospects set to attend.
