

Ohio State Unveils Home Version Of 1980 Throwback Uniforms

The Ohio State men's basketball program will wear the home version of its 1980s throwback uniform, which we first reported back in October, during Saturday's game against Indiana (12 p.m. on ESPN).

The white uniforms prominently display a script "Buckeyes" across the chest a classic striping pattern around the collar and waistband, as well as the arm and leg holes. It also features a throwback Block "O" with a single Buckeye Leaf on the left leg, matching the scarlet road throwback uniforms Ohio State has worn each season since 2018.

This will mark the sixth different uniform the Buckeyes have worn this season, including their new home and away set, anthracite alternate, 1990s gray throwback and two 1980s throwbacks.

Best set of unis in all of college basketball? ☐ What do we think? ☐
