To Oklahoma State basketball, thank you for all the opportunities, support, and love. To my teammates, y'all know what it is and I love y'all. However, it's time for me to move on. I'm coming home and will be transferring to Ohio State University to play basketball! #gobucks

The 5-10 Miller was a top-25 guard in the class of 2017, according to ESPN HoopGurlz. She won 115 games and three state championships with the Knights and was named a McDonald's All-American, the Greater Catholic League Player of the Year and an All-Ohio selection as a senior.

Miller was a member of the All-Big 12 freshman team during her first year in Stillwater (Okla.), as she averaged 11.7 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game for the Cowboys. She improved upon those stats during her sophomore campaign, averaging 14.7 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game.

Miller reportedly put her name in the transfer portal back in March. She will likely have to sit out this coming season per NCAA rules, but will have two years of eligibility remaining.

Ohio State went 14-15 (10-8 in the Big Ten) last season. The Buckeyes lost in the first round of the WNIT, 71-61.
