

Recruiting: Ohio State Sends Out Three Offers To 2025 Offensive Tackle, 2026 Linebacker and Wide Receiver

Ohio State sent out another three offers over the past few days to a 2025 recruit, Riverview (Fla.) Sumner High four-star offensive tackle Ziyare Addison (6-5, 290), and two 2026 prospects in Houston Mayde Creek four-star linebacker Kosi Okpala (6-2, 215) and Jacksonville (Fla.) The Bolles School four-star wide receiver Naeem Burroughs (5-11, 160).

Addison is one of many offensive line offers the Buckeyes have sent out recently and is the No. 211 player in the country, the No. 22 offensive tackle and the No. 30 player in the state of Florida according to 247Sports composite ranking.

Okpala is ranked the No. 157 player in the 2026 class, the 14th linebacker and the 18th best player in Texas. He had received 18 Division I offers so far, eight of which have come in the month of May.
