

Recruiting Outlook: OSU Signs 2022 Class, Issues Offers For Upcoming Classes

Recruiting Outlook is a weekly series on Buckeye Sports Bulletin designed to be your one-stop shop for all news related to the Ohio State football recruiting trail.

Friday marked the end of the Early Signing Period, and Ohio State was able to take away 18 signees for its class of 2022.

For a closer look at each of Ohio State's signees, visit the Buckeye Sports Bulletin Early Signing Period Hub, and also see what head coach Ryan Day had to say about the class.

Though the Buckeyes are still in on a number of 2022 prospects, including Hammond (Wisc.) Saint Croix Central four-star offensive lineman, who was set to announce between Ohio State and Wisconsin Friday but pushed his decision back, there will likely be no more than two or three more commitments for Ohio State, leaving them at 20 or 21 in the class.

As Ohio State begins wrapping up the 2022 cycle, the focus begins to shift to 2023 and beyond. The Buckeyes have issued a number of offers the past few weeks, all of which can be found below:

- Windsor (Conn.) Loomis Chaffee School four-star offensive tackle Olaus Alinen (6-7, 315) received an offer on Dec. 16. Rated as the No. 125 overall prospect and the No. 12 offensive tackle, he holds offers from Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Miami (Fla.), Michigan, Michigan State, Oklahoma, Ole Miss, Oregon, Penn State, Texas and USC, among others.
- Olney (Md.) Our Lady Good Counsel four-star defensive end Neeo Avery (6-5, 230) received an offer on Dec. 7. Rated as the No. 209 overall prospect and No. 19 edge rusher, he holds offers from Cincinnati, Georgia, Michigan State, Ole Miss and Penn State, among others.
