

Teague, Crowley, Miller Not Available For Buckeyes

Ohio State will be without a pair of backup halfbacks, its backup center and a few other contributors when it takes the field against Indiana at 7:30 p.m. on ABC in Bloomington. Per the university's availability report, Marcus Crowley, Harry Miller and Master Teague are all out for tonight's game with the Hoosiers.

Elsewhere on the list, safety Jantzen Dunn remains out, as does fellow secondary youngster JK Johnson. Defensive tackle Jaden McKenzie, tight end Gee Scott Jr. and offensive lineman Enokk Vimahi are all out as well.

Notably, halfback Miyan Williams, defensive end Tyreke Smith, defensive tackle Haskell Garrett, cornerback Cameron Brown and wide receiver Julian Fleming are all cleared for action.
