

Three-Star Cornerback Jordyn Woods Flips From Cincinnati To Ohio State

The Buckeyes added another cornerback to their 2025 class on Monday. They were able to flip Cartersville, Ga., three-star cornerback Jordyn Woods (6-3, 175), who committed to Tim Walton on Nov. 25.

The pursuit of the former Cincinnati commit lasted just under a month, dating back to Oct. 26 when the Buckeyes hosted him for a visit for the 21-17 win over Nebraska. He was offered a scholarship from Ohio State on Nov. 3. He didn't take long to make an official visit to Columbus, doing so for the Nov. 23 matchup against Indiana, watching the Buckeyes beat the No. 5 Hoosiers 38-15.

The visit must have gone well, because he took just two more days to decommit from the Bearcats and pledge his services to the Buckeyes. He had been committed to Cincinnati since June.

Woods is the No. 1,273 prospect in the 2025 class and the No. 117 cornerback in the country according to 247Sports composite rankings.

It still remains a possibility that Birmingham (Ala.) Parker five-star cornerback Na'eem Offord (6-1, 185) could flip to either Auburn or Oregon, but he won't make his final decision until Dec. 4, so the Buckeyes could still look to add another cornerback in the class. They have been targeting multiple other flip candidates, like Gaithersburg (Md.) Quince Orchard three-star cornerback Aydan West (6-0, 184), who is currently committed to Michigan State and visited Columbus for the win over Indiana.
